Meet The Trainers/Presenters

Carrie Becker, Transforming Early Childhood Education LLC

Carrie has 20 years of experience in education with a focus on early childhood and special education. She has a bachelor's degree in elementary and special education and a master's degree in curriculum/Instruction. Carrie has taught in traditional and emergent classroom settings in public and independent school learning environments. Since childhood, Carrie knew she wanted to be a mom and a teacher.

Carrie uses her experiences in education as a guide for her educational consulting business- Transforming Early Childhood Education. Carrie is the developer and facilitator of teacher training workshops; she acts as a teacher mentor and creates specialized emergent-based curriculum frameworks. She has a passion for creating environments that foster a love of learning while seeing all children as competent and capable of guiding their educational path.

Jasmine Smith, Core Quality Improvement Specialist

Jasmine's background as a former preschool teacher, coupled with her dedication to, positions her as a valuable resource in the field of early childhood education. With her extensive experience working with children aged 0 to 5, she brings a wealth of knowledge and insight into the unique needs and developmental stages of young learners.

Jasmine's commitment to enhancing quality child care underscores her passion for ensuring that children receive the best possible educational experiences during their formative years. Her expertise allows her to provide valuable assistance and support to educators and caregivers, helping them create nurturing and enriching environments that promote learning and development.

. Her presence in the field of early childhood education is sure to have a positive impact on the quality of care and education provided to young children in the communities she serves.

Shewanna Lynch Manning, Core Quality Improvement Coordinator

Shewanna has a wealth of experience and expertise in the field of early childhood education, specifically in daycare settings, with over 25 years of experience, her role as Core Quality Improvement Coordinator suggests a focus on enhancing the overall quality of early childhood education programs.

Her key areas of specialization include providing professional development, training and technical assistance for various settings, such as family child care homes, school age programs, and classrooms catering to infants, toddlers, and preschoolers. This indicates her comprehensive understanding of the diverse needs and developmental stages of children across different age groups.

Shewanna's involvement in Workforce Development signals a commitment to fostering the growth and professional development of individuals working in the field of early childhood education. This could involve initiatives aimed at improving skills, knowledge, and overall competence among educators and caregivers.

Her extensive background, helps her to be well equipped to contribute significantly to the improvement of early childhood education programs, ensuring that they meet high standards of quality and effectively support the development of young children and the professional development growth of early childhood providers.

She was nationally named the Darkness2Light-Stewards of Children Authorized Facilitator of the Year Award for 2021.*

Shaquana Bynum, Regional Healthy Social Behavioral Specialist

Shaquana “Shay Butter” brings a wealth of experience and a passionate dedication to early childhood education. With over 14 years of classroom experience, her background as a former Head Start teacher has equipped her with valuable insights into the unique needs and developmental stages of young children.

Her current role is to provide evidence-based, research -based, and relationship-based technical assistance and professional development training. This indicates a commitment to staying current with the latest research and incorporating evidence-based practices into her work. Her emphasis on relationship-based approaches suggests an understanding of the importance of positive and nurturing connections in fostering children’s development.

One standout aspect of her approach is her focus on promoting healthy social development in young children aged 0-5 years. This aligns with the critical early years of a child’s life when social and emotional foundations are established. Her commitment to empowering teachers to create learning environments that foster pro-social skills reflects a holistic approach to education the goes beyond academic achievement.

Her adoption and modification of the quote “It takes a village to raise a child” to “it takes a HEALTHY village to raise a HEALTHY child” encapsulates her holistic perspective on child development. This emphasizes the importance of a supportive and well-balanced community in nurturing the health and well-being of children.

Melanie P. Hudson REHS /Edgecombe County, Environmental Health Supervisor II

*Melanie Powell Hudson is a native of Edgecombe County, born and raised in Battleboro, NC. Melanie has been employed with Edgecombe County Health Department, Environmental Health Section, for 18.5 years. She started out as a general Environmental Health Specialist (Health Inspector), becoming a Registered Environmental Health Specialist, then Environmental Health Supervisor, and most recently promoted to Environmental Health Manager.

Melanie oversees the entire Environmental Health program within Edgecombe County which includes the following divisions: Food, Lodging & Institutions, Onsite Water & Wastewater, Child Care Centers, Childhood Lead Poisoning & Prevention, Public Swimming Pools, Tattoo Parlors and Migrant Housing. She continues to work diligently within the community to enhance, educate and protect Public Health.

Tracy L. Pittman, CCR & R Core Services Program Manager

Tracy has played a crucial role in the field of early childhood education including in her roles at regional and migrant head start programs. In her current role as CCR & R Core Services Program Manager she wears multiple hats to ensure the success and quality of early childcare programs in Region 14, which includes Edgecombe, Halifax, Nash, Warren and Wilson Counties.

Her responsibilities include overseeing various aspects, such as providing and ensure the development and implementation of technical assistance in the areas of early child care facility start-up, administration in child care programs, family child care facilities, school age programs, environmental ratings assessments, and implementations. Tracy is also trained in providing professional development in Playground Safety, IT'S SIDS, Cultural Competence, Before and After School Care, CLASS, and other vital topics related to early childhood education.

By referring to child care providers as Early Childhood Education Professionals, Tracy emphasizes the importance of viewing their roles as highly skilled and valuable.

Additionally, Tracy's collaborative efforts with community organizations highlight her commitment to fostering high-quality early childhood education. This collaboration likely involves working with local partners to create a supportive network that enhances the overall educational experience of young children and the Early Childhood Education Professionals that work with them in Region 14.

Overall, Tracy's role showcases a comprehensive and dedicated approach to supporting early childhood education and ensuring that early childcare providers have the knowledge, skills and resources needed to provide high-quality care and education to the "most precious jewels" the young children, our further leaders.
